Saint Michael School Celebrates 60 Years of Providing Quality, Catholic Education

North Andover, MA – June 2, 2011 – Saint Michael School has announced that this year's graduating class (2011) is their sixtieth class to graduate. The North Andover Catholic school opened in 1950 and graduated the first eighth grade class in 1951. This year's graduating class includes 52 students who will go forth to some of the most prestigious area high schools. Saint Michael School has long been an important part of the local community, teaching students to honor themselves, their community and their education.

“We are excited to celebrate our 60th Anniversary. During our sixty years, we have provided approximately 2400 students with an exemplary Catholic Education. Saint Michael School strives to instill faith, honesty, respect and all other essential Catholic values in our students”, said Rev. John Delaney, Saint Michael Parish. “A Catholic Education is truly an advantage for life.”

“Saint Michael School graduates continue to stand out from their peers in both academics and community involvement”, said Susan Gosselin, Principal of Saint Michael School. “ This year’s graduating class have been accepted at some of the finest high schools in our region including: Brooks School, Central Catholic, Presentation of Mary, Academy of Notre Dame, Saint John’s Preparatory, Pingree, Governor’s Academy and other wonderful private and Catholic high schools. This year we celebrate 60 years and look forward to 60 more!”

About Saint Michael School

Saint Michael School is a Catholic Christian community serving children from early childhood through grade eight from our parish community and the Greater Merrimack Valley. Saint Michael School offers a solid academic foundation that will enable the students to succeed in the future. Promoting gospel values through prayer, religious instruction and community outreach, we strive to carry on the spirit of faith and love initiated by the Sisters of Charity of Halifax.
