Local Retailer Secures Grant for Saint Michael School

North Andover, MA – January 24, 2011 – Saint Michael School of North Andover has received a $750 grant from the Exxon/Mobil Educational Alliance program. Sam and Lori Ameen, owners of Main Street Mobile in Andover, MA worked with school officials to secure the grant, which is one of 2,400 available to schools across the country served by Exxon or Mobil stations. The grants were made possible by funding from the ExxonMobil Corporation.

“Saint Michael School works hard to make learning interesting and fun,” said Lori Ameen . “As a Mobil retailer, we are proud to help young people of the local communities.”

The ExxonMobil Education Alliance program is designed to provide Exxon and Mobil retailers with an opportunity to invest in the future of their communities through educational grants to neighborhood schools. ExxonMobil believes that, as members of the community, local retailers are best qualified to work with local educators to help identify schools and programs most in need of support.

“It’s impressive that a local business recognizes the importance of community support for the education of our children,” said Susan Gosselin, Principal of Saint Michael School. “We are grateful to the Ameen Family for working hard to secure this grant. The money will directly benefit the children of Saint Michael School. ”

Main Street Mobile met stringent eligibility criteria before applying for and being awarded this grant, including having a commitment to provide a superior buying experience for customers.
