

At New Years, many of us make promises of what we'll do in the new year. I got to thinking about what my resolution would be this year and in all honesty, my family is simply going to try to do more for others. Sounds simple, right? But in truth, our lives are so busy with school, work, extra-curricular activities and more that it is hard to put others first. But, if you can find just a few minutes each day to practice a random act of kindness, I truly believe that you'll make yourself a better person.

So what can you do as a random act of kindness? There are many great ideas so here's a couple to get you started: Pay for the person behind you in the drive-thru, pay someone a compliment for a job well done, volunteer as a family at a shelter, MSPCA, etc., thank a service person for their work, send a love note in your child's lunch box, send a note of encouragement to someone you know could use it, help a family in financial need, make a meal for a neighbor or offer to help clear snow for a neighbor. When our children see their parents doing kind deeds for others, a lasting impression is being made at that exact moment. If we want our children to be compassionate, caring and giving adults, we have to start when they are young. Engage your children in these random acts of kindness. Let them help you shovel for the neighbor, let your child deliver a tray of cookies to the local police department with a kind note, etc. What we teach our children today through our own actions, will make them the young adults we envision them to be.

The new year also brings an opportunity to engage more fully in our faith. Just like life seems too busy to put others first, it also often feels that you can't fit in a weekend trip to mass. Just like practice for a sport or dance, going to weekly mass is not only our obligation, but it is the practice our children need to become closer to God and to understand our faith. Put it this way, you pay tuition each year to educate your child in the Catholic faith, but then they never get to fully experience the thrill of attending the mass with their family to show what they have learned. That's like paying for sports and dance and then never allowing your child to participate in the recital or big championship game. In this new year, please consider a return to weekend masses, daily prayer, grace before meals or prayers before bedtime. These are practices that the entire family can do that will make those lasting impressions on your children and help your entire family to grow in their Catholic faith journey.

We are excited to share that we will start off Catholic Schools Week (Jan. 25-30) with mass on January 25th at 10a.m. Archbishop Henning will be here to help us kick off the week which will be filled with activities. Stay tuned for a calendar of events and please add this special 10a.m. mass to your calendar. We ask students to come to the mass dressed in their uniform.

Happy New Year to all!

Tuition Update

How Do Families Receive a Parishioner Tuition Rate?

As a reminder, to be considered an active parishioner (and receive a parishioner tuition rate for the 2026-2027 school year) families must make a minimum total offertory donation of $500 to our parish beginning July 1, 2025 to April 1, 2026. This can be done on a weekly basis when you attend Mass BUT it must be made in a trackable manner. You NEED to be a registered parishioner. If you wish to receive offertory envelopes from the parish, please email donations@saintmichael.com.

You may also make donations on the parish online giving website <https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/298>. Donations made at Easter and Christmas are for the benefit of the Clergy Trust and therefore do NOT count toward the annual $500 donation to St. Michael Parish.

Catholic Schools Week

January 25-30

We are delighted to welcome Archbishop Richard Henning to Saint Michael Parish for his first visit since being installed as Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Boston.

He will preside at the 10am Family Mass on Sunday, January 25 as part of the Archdiocese's kick-off to Catholic Schools Week. Saint Michael School students will assist in preparing this liturgy and will serve in a variety of roles.

We hope you will join us for this joyful and memorable occasion.

Activities planned for Catholic Schools Week:

Sunday- Celebrate Your Parish, Attend the 10a.m. mass in uniform (get a no uniform pass at the back of the church)

Monday- Celebrate Your Faculty, Staff and Volunteers, Wear SMS pride

Tuesday- Celebrate Your Students, Children should wear: PJs (no onesies) or Hoodies

Wednesday- Celebrating Vocation, Children should wear: Regular Uniform

Thursday- Celebrate The Nation , Children should wear: Red, White & Blue attire

Friday- Celebrate Your Community, Dress up like a favorite community worker or favorite community sports team, or personal activity

Have a friend/neighbor/relative who is interested in sending their child to SMS? Please share that we are hosting an Open House on January 28th at 9:30a.m.

Thank You!

We wish to thank and recognize everyone who made a donation to our Annual Fund. We are excited to announce that as of January 2026, we received over $54,000! Your generosity made that possible – Thank you!

ART CLASS

With Mrs. Donegan

To celebrate the weather most classes in the art room have been learning about snowflakes and creating their very own. Nursery and Pre-K created their own and even made crowns!

Third, fourth and fifth grade students have been drawing with pencil and Sharpies and will paint the background with watercolor.

Counselor's Corner with Mrs. Rowley

A group of 8th graders came to see me asking if we could start a Tech Deck club. I told them that in order for a club to be started I needed them to put together a thorough plan on how they could execute it throughout the upper school. Within just a couple of days they had a written plan that was able to be put into action. Let me introduce the "Tech Deck Club". At this time it consists of upper school students, however, the plan is for them to soon start teaching the lower school students! This is entirely student initiated. They have built their own park equipment, as well as the actual boards. They support each other to learn new skills and are having a blast!
